Dear Ms Berkley !

I `ve read your advertisement in the "Daily Mirror" .
The job outline for the cook sounds very interesting, and I would like to work for your successful hotel.

I´m punctual and reliable and like cooking very much.
My aim is to become a very good cook.
I`m also prepared to work evenings and weekends.

I could start work in July.

I look forward hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Benjamin Brown
